

Weird Washington

Wednesday, November 19, 2008 6:30 pm

Seating is limited. Admission is on a first-come, first-served basis.

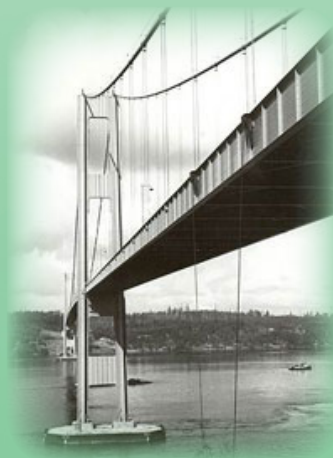

Lobby doors will open at 6pm.

Washington State Library
6880 Capitol Boulevard South
Tumwater, Washington

Home of coffee giants, exceptional wines, computer gurus, and the legendary Sasquatch, Washington State has its fair share of the good, the bad, and the unusual just waiting to be explored.

Washington is weird, just ask anyone who's seen the Fremont Troll, or Jake the Alligator Man at Marsh's Free Museum in Long Beach. There are any number of strange and wonderful things in Washington that begged to be compiled, so authors Jeff Davis and Al Eufrazio took on the task of collecting everything weird in Washington for the latest edition in the Weird U.S. series.

Join us as Jeff Davis and Albert Eufrazio share a few of the stories and unique landmarks in Washington. You might even be able to add your favorite weird Washington to the next volume!

WASHINGTON STATE LIBRARY

Washington
Secretary of State
SAM REED

For more information about this or other free events at the
Washington State Library
contact: WSL events at 360.704.5269 or wslevents@secstate.wa.gov